Project Result One: done ✓

Get ready to level up your youth work skills! Our training kit is ready and packed with fresh techniques to help you drive social inclusion and boost creativity, resilience, and digital literacy among the youth.

Youth workers will learn theories and strategies for working with NEETs, get access to practical resources to easily apply the new knowledge in an educational setting, and receive a digital badges when completing modules.

The kit was pilot-tested with 50 youth workers from across Europe and gathered feedback that was used to make final revisions and perfect the training material before making it available to everyone.

Empower yourself with the latest youth work tools and techniques and make a real impact in your community. Visit our website <https://dali4youth.eu/online-training-kit> and try it out!

Transnational meeting in Rome (1st-2nd of December 2022)

Project partners reunited in beautiful Rome for a productive meeting focused on the Online Training Kit for youth workers in digital art. It was amazing to see everyone again and talk about the progress of this vital project.

With AI-generated art making waves in the news, the timing couldn't be better for our training kit. The two-day meeting was filled with lively discussions and ended with exciting plans for the next project result - an educational game for young digital artists.

Right now, the development of this game is in full swing, and the team is eager to share updates with you. So stay tuned for more exciting news!
